

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

Missionaries in Oklahoma say that Indians are becoming so rich through oil and coal that it is very hard to get them to be truly religious. But the blamed redskins reply that they never could get religion hot enough to keep out the cold or thick enough to fill their stomachs.

The patent office has reported a part list of nearly five hundred patents to negroes, among them 27 to Granville T. Woods of New York for electrical devices. Many of these are in use throughout the country, one of particular value having been adopted by the Bell Telephone Co.